DETAILED ACTION

1. The missing claims correction is made.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 9-25 and 64-71, drawn to process for providing a RFID tag to an individual in a gambling establishment and using its reader component to receive information from the RFID tag, classified in class 705, subclass 35

II. Claims 45-53 and 80, drawn to process for positioning a RFID tag with a casino game to detect its proximity of a casino game, classified in class 705, subclass 35.

III Claim 72, drawn to process for recording information and alerting one at a game, classified in class 705, subclass 35.

IV Claims1-8, 44, 59-63 and 79 drawn to apparatus for a plurality of casino games and an information system to record individual's movement and activities, classified in class 705, subclass 41.

V Claims 26-43, 54-58, 73-78 and 81 drawn to apparatus for individual carrying RFID tag capable of receiving information from the tag, classified in class 705, subclass 41.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

3. Inventions (I to III) and (IV to V) are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by hand, AND the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as email or multimedia enjoyment (DVD's, MP3's, etc.)

4. Inventions I-V are directed to related inventions. The related inventions are distinct if (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See (MPEP § 806.05(j). In this case, the inventions as claimed have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping. Subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction were not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction were not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

9. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.
